FROM NOW ON

Lamborghini has unveiled Revuelto, the first HPEV (High Performance Electrified Vehicle) hybrid super sports car before the 60th anniversary of the marque. With the Revuelto, Lamborghini has established a new benchmark in terms of performance, with 1015CV; highly efficient on-board technology; and driving pleasure in all conditions: from city cruising to a track day.

A high-angle, close-up view of the interior of a Lamborghini Revuelto. The image shows the driver's side, including the black leather steering wheel with yellow stitching, the instrument cluster with three analog gauges and a central digital display, and the center console with a gear shifter and handbrake. The interior is finished with black leather and bright yellow accents, including the seats, door panels, and center console. The car is parked in a modern building with large glass windows, and a view of a coastal landscape with a blue sea and rocky shore is visible through the windows.
