

TRD Rolls Out Customizing Parts for All-New LEXUS IS “F SPORT PARTS”

November 5th, 2020, Toyota Customizing & Development Co., Ltd. has released a sports part “F SPORT PARTS (TRD)” for the Lexus brand, in line with minor change of LEXUS IS.

The development concept is "Aerodynamic Control" and "Total Balance". The aero parts, which are simple yet have a high total balance of aerodynamic performance, have both styling and performance suitable for IS. In addition, the 20-inch forged alloy wheels realize a "YET" Philosophy- inch-up and weight reduction.
